PRAKRUTHI CLUB ORGANIZED AN ECO-FRIENDLY ORGANIC STALL AND GREEN HUNT EVENT AS PART OF LAKSHYA 2K25

Event Type : Prakruthi Club organized an Ecofriendly Organic and Locally Available Products Display Stall and a Fun & Environmental Awareness Event as part of Lakshya 2K25.

Date / Duration : 25 January 2025

Event Name: "NATURE's BASKET" - Organic and Biodegradable Products Display Stall & "GREEN HUNT" - Fun & Environmental Awareness Event

Total No. of Participants : 60

Objective of the Event: To promote awareness among students and faculty about the importance of using eco-friendly, organic, and locally available products. Additionally, "Green Hunt" aimed to engage participants in an interactive and educational game to enhance their environmental knowledge and awareness.

Outcome of the Event:

Visitors to the "NATURE's BASKET" stall gained insights into organic farming and the benefits of using biodegradable and locally available products. Participants in "GREEN HUNT" developed a better understanding of environmental sustainability through engaging and interactive rounds. All participants received certificates, and winners were rewarded with surprise gifts and a cash prize.

Description / Report on Event: Prakruthi Club successfully organized the "NATURE's BASKET" stall as part of Lakshya 2K25, showcasing a variety of eco-friendly, organic, and biodegradable products. The stall aimed to highlight the significance of sustainable living by educating visitors about organic farming practices and the harmful effects of synthetic chemicals in agriculture. Volunteers from the club actively engaged with students and faculty, explaining the benefits of these products and encouraging their adoption in daily life.

In addition to the stall, Prakruthi Club hosted "GREEN HUNT," a three-round event combining environmental awareness and fun.

- Round 1: Leaf Game – Participants identified tree leaves to collect mystery boxes.
- Round 2: Voltea – Teams played a musical ball-passing game, with eliminations based on timing.
- Round 3: Euphoria – Players matched logos, with the fastest to finish winning.

The event successfully combined education with entertainment, fostering greater environmental awareness among participants. The enthusiasm and engagement of students highlighted the success of the event, making it a memorable experience for all.
