INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

STUDENT ATTESTATION. You should read everything on this page carefully. Be sure that you understand the terms and conditions concerning your admission and stay in the United States as a nonimmigrant student before signing the student attestation on page 1 of the Form I-20 A-B. The law provides severe penalties for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact, or using any false document in the submission of this form.

FORM I-20. The Form I-20 (this form) is the primary document to show that you have been admitted to school in the United States and that you are authorized to apply for admission to the United States in F-1 class of admission. You must have your Form I-20 with you at all times. If you lose your Form I-20, you must request a new one from your designated school official (DSO) at the school named on your Form I-20.

VISA APPLICATION. You must give this Form I-20 to the U.S. consular officer at the time you apply for a visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements). If you have a Form I-20 from more than one school, be sure to present the Form I-20 for the school you plan to attend. Your visa will include the name of that school, and you must attend that school upon entering the United States. You must also provide evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States.

ADMISSION. When you enter the United States, you must present the following documents to the officer at the port of entry: 1) a Form I-20; 2) a valid F-1 visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements); 3) a valid passport; and 4) evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States. The agent should return all documents to you before you leave the inspection area.

REPORT TO SCHOOL NAMED ON YOUR FORM I-20 AND VISA. Upon your first entry to the United States, you must report to the DSO at the school named on your Form I-20 and your F-1 visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements). If you decide to attend another school before you enter the United States, you must present a Form I-20 from the new school to a U.S. consular officer for a new F-1 visa that names the new school. Failure to enroll in the school, by the program start date on your Form I-20 may result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

EMPLOYMENT. Unlawful employment in the United States is a reason for terminating your F-1 status and deporting you from the United States. You may be employed on campus at your school. You may be employed off-campus in curricular practical training (CPT) if you have written permission from your DSO. You may apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for off-campus employment authorization in three circumstances: 1) employment with an international organization; 2) severe and unexpected economic hardship; and 3) optional practical training (OPT) related to your degree. You must have written authorization from USCIS before you begin work. Contact your DSO for details. Your spouse or child (F-2 classification) may not work in the United States.

PERIOD OF STAY. You may remain in the United States while taking a full course of study or during authorized employment after your program. F-1 status ends and you are required to leave the United States on the earliest of the following dates: 1) the program end date on your Form I-20 plus 60 days; 2) the end date of your OPT plus 60 days; or 3) the termination of your program for any other reason. Contact your DSO for details.

EXTENSION OF PROGRAM. If you cannot complete the education program by the program end date on page 1 of your Form I-20, you should contact your DSO at least 15 days before the program end date to request an extension.

SCHOOL TRANSFER. To transfer schools, first notify the DSO at the school you are attending of your plan to transfer, then obtain a Form I-20 from the DSO at the school you plan to attend. Return the Form I-20 for the new school to the DSO at that school within 15 days after beginning attendance at the new school. The DSO will then report the transfer to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). You must enroll in the new school at the next session start date. The DSO at the new school must update your registration in SEVIS.

NOTICE OF ADDRESS. When you arrive in the United States, you must report your U.S. address to your DSO. If you move, you must notify your DSO of your new address within 10 days of the change of address. The DSO will update SEVIS with your new address.

REENTRY. F-1 students may leave the United States and return within a period of five months. To return, you must have: 1) a valid passport; 2) a valid F-1 student visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements); and 3) your Form I-20, page 2, properly endorsed for reentry by your DSO. If you have been out of the United States for more than five months, contact your DSO.

AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE INFORMATION BY SCHOOL. DHS requires your school to provide DHS with your name, country of birth, current address, immigration status, and certain other information on a regular basis or upon request. Your signature on the Form I-20 authorizes the named school to release such information from your records.

PENALTY. To maintain your nonimmigrant student status, you must: 1) remain a full-time student at your authorized school; 2) engage only in authorized employment; and 3) keep your passport valid. Failure to comply with these regulations will result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SCHOOLS

Failure to comply with 8 CFR 214.3(k) and 8 CFR 214.4 when issuing Forms I-20 will subject you and your school to criminal prosecution. If you issue this form improperly, provide false information, or fail to submit required reports, DHS may withdraw its certification of your school for attendance by nonimmigrant students.

ISSUANCE OF FORM I-20. DSOs may issue a Form I-20 for any nonimmigrant your school has accepted for a full course of study if that person: 1) plans to apply to enter the United States in F-1 status; 2) is in the United States as an F-1 nonimmigrant and plans to transfer to your school; or 3) is in the United States and will apply to change nonimmigrant status to F-1. DSOs may also issue the Form I-20 to the spouse or child (under the age of 21) of an F-1 student to use to enter or remain in the United States as an F-2 dependent. DSOs must sign where indicated at the bottom of page 1 of the Form I-20 to attest that the form is completed and issued in accordance with regulations.

ENDORSEMENT OF PAGE 2 FOR REENTRY. If there have been no substantive changes in information, DSOs may endorse page 2 of the Form I-20 for the student and/or the F-2 dependents to reenter the United States. If there have been substantive changes, the DSO should issue and sign a new Form I-20 that includes those changes.

RECORDKEEPING. DHS may request information concerning the student's immigration status for various reasons. DSOs should retain all evidence of academic ability and financial resources on which admission was based, until SEVIS shows the student's record completed or terminated.

AUTHORITY FOR COLLECTING INFORMATION. Authority for collecting the information on this and related student forms is contained in 8 U.S.C. 1101 and 1184. The Department of State and DHS use this information to determine eligibility for the benefits requested. The law provides severe penalties for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact, or using any false document in the submission of this form.

REPORTING BURDEN. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement collects this information as part of its agency mission under the Department of Homeland Security. The estimated average time to review the instructions, search existing data sources, gather and maintain the needed data, and complete and review the collection of information is 30 minutes (.50 hours) per response. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to an information collection unless a form displays a currently valid OMB Control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: Office of the Chief Information Officer/Forms Management Branch, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, 801 I Street NW Stop 5800, Washington, DC 20536-5800. Do not send the form to this address.

Dear Ajendra Reddy,

Congratulations on your acceptance to Webster University. I am pleased to inform you that you have been granted provisional acceptance for:

- Initial Term of Application: August 14, 2023
- Major: Cybersecurity with an emphasis in Artificial Intelligence (MS)
- Location: St. Louis Home Campus

All international students in the United States on F-1 or J-1 visas are required to take the Webster University sponsored Health Insurance. Additional details are available at <http://www.webster.edu/health/insurance.html>. After completing your first 12 credit hours, you will be administered an academic evaluation in order to advance to degree candidacy in your area of study.

Your provisional acceptance means that upon receipt of your final and official transcript(s) (transcripts issued to students are not considered official), you will be sent a new letter of decision. Students who do not have their official transcript(s) on file within three weeks of the first term of enrollment will not be allowed to enroll in additional courses.

Finally, Webster's Academic Resource Center (ARC) offers various services to help ensure your success as a student. For more information about the services available through the ARC, in addition to questions regarding academic or physical accommodations for individuals with documented disabilities, please contact us at 1-800-981-9801 Ext. 7620 or visit webster.edu/arc.

We look forward to seeing you on campus. We believe that you will find your work at Webster University to be both challenging and rewarding.

Sincerely,

Dear Kiranmai,

On behalf of the School of Engineering, I am delighted to inform you that you have been admitted into the Master of Science in Computer Information Systems (MSCIS) program at Christian Brothers University for the Fall (August) 2023 term.

Your student ID number is 899497654. You will need this number in order to conduct business with all offices on campus.

IMPORTANT I-20 UPDATE: All international graduate students seeking an F1 visa must pay a $550 Tuition Deposit through Flywire or Touchnet before an I-20 will be issued. This deposit must be paid upon acceptance and will be credited to your student account as a tuition payment and will reduce the amount you owe for the incoming semester. This tuition deposit is non-refundable unless it is confirmed through the U.S. Department of State that your visa is denied.

NOTE: You are required to submit official transcripts from all colleges/universities attended prior to enrollment.

Please note that all students who take classes on campus or utilize campus facilities must submit a Student Health Form and Influenza Vaccination Verification using the following link: New Student Health Services On-Boarding Verification Form. COVID vaccinations are strongly encouraged, and you may also use this form to submit your COVID Vaccination Verification.

If you have any questions, please contact me at gradengineering@cbu.edu.

I wish you the best of luck in the MSCIS program and offer you my personal congratulations on your acceptance.

Welcome to Christian Brothers University!

Best Regards,

Randel Price, Ph.D.

INSTRUCTIONS TO STUDENTS

STUDENT ATTESTATION. You should read everything on this page carefully. Be sure that you understand the terms and conditions concerning your admission and stay in the United States as a nonimmigrant student before signing the student attestation on page 1 of the Form I-20 A-B. The law provides severe penalties for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact, or using any false document in the submission of this form.

FORM I-20. The Form I-20 (this form) is the primary document to show that you have been admitted to school in the United States and that you are authorized to apply for admission to the United States in F-1 class of admission. You must have your Form I-20 with you at all times. If you lose your Form I-20, you must request a new one from your designated school official (DSO) at the school named on your Form I-20.

VISA APPLICATION. You must give this Form I-20 to the U.S. consular officer at the time you apply for a visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements). If you have a Form I-20 from more than one school, be sure to present the Form I-20 for the school you plan to attend. Your visa will include the name of that school, and you must attend that school upon entering the United States. You must also provide evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States.

ADMISSION. When you enter the United States, you must present the following documents to the officer at the port of entry: 1) a Form I-20; 2) a valid F-1 visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements); 3) a valid passport; and 4) evidence of support for tuition and fees and living expenses while you are in the United States. The agent should return all documents to you before you leave the inspection area.

REPORT TO SCHOOL NAMED ON YOUR FORM I-20 AND VISA. Upon your first entry to the United States, you must report to the DSO at the school named on your Form I-20 and your F-1 visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements). If you decide to attend another school before you enter the United States, you must present a Form I-20 from the new school to a U.S. consular officer for a new F-1 visa that names the new school. Failure to enroll in the school, by the program start date on your Form I-20 may result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

EMPLOYMENT. Unlawful employment in the United States is a reason for terminating your F-1 status and deporting you from the United States. You may be employed on campus at your school. You may be employed off-campus in curricular practical training (CPT) if you have written permission from your DSO. You may apply to U.S. Citizenship and Immigration Services (USCIS) for off-campus employment authorization in three circumstances: 1) employment with an international organization; 2) severe and unexpected economic hardship; and 3) optional practical training (OPT) related to your degree. You must have written authorization from USCIS before you begin work. Contact your DSO for details. Your spouse or child (F-2 classification) may not work in the United States.

PERIOD OF STAY. You may remain in the United States while taking a full course of study or during authorized employment after your program. F-1 status ends and you are required to leave the United States on the earliest of the following dates: 1) the program end date on your Form I-20 plus 60 days; 2) the end date of your OPT plus 60 days; or 3) the termination of your program for any other reason. Contact your DSO for details.

EXTENSION OF PROGRAM. If you cannot complete the education program by the program end date on page 1 of your Form I-20, you should contact your DSO at least 15 days before the program end date to request an extension.

SCHOOL TRANSFER. To transfer schools, first notify the DSO at the school you are attending of your plan to transfer, then obtain a Form I-20 from the DSO at the school you plan to attend. Return the Form I-20 for the new school to the DSO at that school within 15 days after beginning attendance at the new school. The DSO will then report the transfer to the Department of Homeland Security (DHS). You must enroll in the new school at the next session start date. The DSO at the new school must update your registration in SEVIS.

NOTICE OF ADDRESS. When you arrive in the United States, you must report your U.S. address to your DSO. If you move, you must notify your DSO of your new address within 10 days of the change of address. The DSO will update SEVIS with your new address.

REENTRY. F-1 students may leave the United States and return within a period of five months. To return, you must have: 1) a valid passport; 2) a valid F-1 student visa (unless you are exempt from visa requirements); and 3) your Form I-20, page 2, properly endorsed for reentry by your DSO. If you have been out of the United States for more than five months, contact your DSO.

AUTHORIZATION TO RELEASE INFORMATION BY SCHOOL. DHS requires your school to provide DHS with your name, country of birth, current address, immigration status, and certain other information on a regular basis or upon request. Your signature on the Form I-20 authorizes the named school to release such information from your records.

PENALTY. To maintain your nonimmigrant student status, you must: 1) remain a full-time student at your authorized school; 2) engage only in authorized employment; and 3) keep your passport valid. Failure to comply with these regulations will result in the loss of your student status and subject you to deportation.

INSTRUCTIONS TO SCHOOLS

Failure to comply with 8 CFR 214.3(k) and 8 CFR 214.4 when issuing Forms I-20 will subject you and your school to criminal prosecution. If you issue this form improperly, provide false information, or fail to submit required reports, DHS may withdraw its certification of your school for attendance by nonimmigrant students.

ISSUANCE OF FORM I-20. DSOs may issue a Form I-20 for any nonimmigrant your school has accepted for a full course of study if that person: 1) plans to apply to enter the United States in F-1 status; 2) is in the United States as an F-1 nonimmigrant and plans to transfer to your school; or 3) is in the United States and will apply to change nonimmigrant status to F-1. DSOs may also issue the Form I-20 to the spouse or child (under the age of 21) of an F-1 student to use to enter or remain in the United States as an F-2 dependent. DSOs must sign where indicated at the bottom of page 1 of the Form I-20 to attest that the form is completed and issued in accordance with regulations.

ENDORSEMENT OF PAGE 2 FOR REENTRY. If there have been no substantive changes in information, DSOs may endorse page 2 of the Form I-20 for the student and/or the F-2 dependents to reenter the United States. If there have been substantive changes, the DSO should issue and sign a new Form I-20 that includes those changes.

RECORDKEEPING. DHS may request information concerning the student's immigration status for various reasons. DSOs should retain all evidence of academic ability and financial resources on which admission was based, until SEVIS shows the student's record completed or terminated.

AUTHORITY FOR COLLECTING INFORMATION. Authority for collecting the information on this and related student forms is contained in 8 U.S.C. 1101 and 1184. The Department of State and DHS use this information to determine eligibility for the benefits requested. The law provides severe penalties for knowingly and willfully falsifying or concealing a material fact, or using any false document in the submission of this form.

REPORTING BURDEN. U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement collects this information as part of its agency mission under the Department of Homeland Security. The estimated average time to review the instructions, search existing data sources, gather and maintain the needed data, and complete and review the collection of information is 30 minutes (.50 hours) per response. An agency may not conduct or sponsor, and a person is not required to respond to an information collection unless a form displays a currently valid OMB Control number. Send comments regarding this burden estimate or any other aspect of this collection of information, including suggestions for reducing this burden, to: Office of the Chief Information Officer/Forms Management Branch, U.S. Immigration and Customs Enforcement, 801 I Street NW Stop 5800, Washington, DC 20536-5800. Dear Narasimha Rao:

Congratulations on your acceptance as a graduate student at Lamar University. Please note your Lamar Student ID number, listed above. The student ID number assigned to you is not a United States social security number. It is used as an identification number at Lamar University only.

The Office of International Student Services will be sending you an email with instructions for submitting your financial statement and information about immigration requirements and regulations. If you reside outside the U.S., you must apply for a student visa to enter the U.S. After you submit your financial statement to the International Student Services Office, the appropriate immigration document (I-20 or DS-2019) will be sent to you. The email you receive from International Student Services will also include important information about orientation, registration and reporting dates. For questions about any of this information, please contact the Office of International Student Services at: international@lamar.edu.

Students who are admitted pending a bachelor's or master's degree must submit proof of their conferred degree during their first semester at Lamar University. Please send us an official college transcript with your degree conferred; students with degrees from international universities must submit an official, course-by-course evaluation with a GPA which lists the equivalent US degree conferred.

Should you have questions about your initial application, or need to change your major, biographical information or entry date, please contact us at: gradmissions@lamar.edu. You may always view your admission status at: www.lamar.edu/admissions-status.

Again, best wishes and congratulations!

Sincerely,

Hanna Deland

Dear Charitha Sri,

Congratulations! On behalf of the faculty and staff of Rowan University, it is my honor to welcome you to Rowan University's Data Science, Master of Science (M.S.) program for the Fall 2023 term. We were impressed by your academic achievements and believe strongly in your potential for continued success.

This is a particularly exciting time to be a student at Rowan. You will have unparalleled opportunities to work with a faculty who are renowned both for their excellence in teaching as well as their exceptional research. The cycle of learning – discovery, dissemination, and implementation – occurs at Rowan as in few other places in the world. Through person-to-person teaching and opportunities to create and apply knowledge on campus and across the globe, Rowan instills a love of learning among its students and empowers them for a lifetime of leadership.

Your first step is to go to Rowan University's Application Portal and click on the "Reply to Offer of Admission" link. After updating your application status, please visit go.rowan.edu/newint for the next steps of your international student experience, including applying for an I-20, housing options and International New Student Orientation.

Again, congratulations on your acceptance. Please let me know if we can be of any help to you between now and the start of the semester. Rowan University welcomes you, and we wish you much success in your educational experience.

Sincerely,

Darren Wagner
Vice President, Strategic Enrollment Management & Rowan Global

Dear Yarra Harika,

Congratulations! The G. Brint Ryan College of Business, Graduate Programs Office (GPO), is pleased to inform you of your admission to the MS in Information Systems and Technologies at the University of North Texas for Fall 2023. You should receive a formal acceptance notice from the Toulouse Graduate School in a few days. Information is also available online at my.unt.edu. The attached documents and information below are intended to help you as you begin your degree program. Please review the materials carefully and respond as requested.

Degree Plan & Advising: Your OFFICIAL degree plan should be filed during your first semester. After reviewing all the attached materials, please contact the Graduate Programs Office for assistance with first term course selection. You can book an advising appointment using the link in your admissions email or call 940-369-8977.

Orientation: We strongly recommend students attend the G. Brint Ryan College of Business Graduate Programs Office Orientation for new students. A 1-hour live webinar via Zoom will provide you with essential information regarding all university resources and policies and procedure of the College of Business Master's Program. Please click on the link in your admission email to register for the webinar.

Scholarships: Departmental scholarships are available for new students. They can be found at our scholarship website, cob.unt.edu/scholarships.

On campus employment: Students looking for on campus jobs, assistantships, and internships can be found on handshake: <https://unt.joinhandshake.com/login>

Welcome to the UNT family. Please contact our office if you have any questions, RCoBMasters@unt.edu, 940-369-8977.

Sincerely,

Dr. Audhesh Paswan
Associate Dean

Congratulations! I am pleased to inform you that you've been accepted to Wilmington University. We aspire to provide a rewarding and successful educational experience and look forward to welcoming you.

You're about to be a member of our University student body, a group of talented and diverse people who share a goal of earning a degree that fits individual lifestyles and budgets. We are committed to your success and believe you will significantly contribute to our unique culture and rigorous learning environment.

Your transfer acceptance form is enclosed. If you are transferring your SEVIS record from another university, you will need to sign and date the transfer request section and send it to the DSO at your previous school. This acceptance letter alone will not facilitate the transfer of your records, so your attention to this matter is essential.

We cover F-1 student visa requirements in depth during orientation and we want you to start your academic journey properly, so attendance is critical.

This acceptance is based on the condition you complete any ESL courses that may have been pre-assigned to you based on your submitted test scores. Please check Wilmington University's ESL policy to learn more about challenging your placement. You have placed into ESL 5101, ESL 5203, and ESL 5204.

The next step is to set up your student account. If you cannot do so in the next three days, please respond to this email, and we will happily assist you.

Again, congratulations and welcome to Wilmington University!
